

THE SOCIALLY-DEMOGRAPHIC CHARACTERISTIC SICK OF THE ARTERIAL HYPERTENSIA

T.G. Afanasieva

The basic problem of pharmacotherapy of patients is a problem of an individual choice of medical products, optimum by efficiency, safety and at cost. Opportunities of such choice exist and can be realized for any no zoological forms of diseases, including and for treatment of an arterial hypertension (AH).