

FORMATION OF THE RUSSIAN MODEL OF THE CORPORATE GOVERNANCE: INSTITUTIONAL ASPECT

D.A. Ageev

One of the major factors of competitiveness, economic growth and activation of investment processes in conditions of globalization is formation of the effective mechanism of corporate management. In this process usefulness of the institutional environments has basic value. In this article the condition of the institutional spheres, a background in which corporate management in Russia "is shipped" is analyzed. Key parameters of model of long-term stability institutional environments are allocated, author attempts to solve the contradiction of formed national model of corporate management.