

FEATURES OF CONDUCT OF CHIEFS OF ENTERPRISES AND CREDITORS IN CONDITIONS OF INSOLVENCY

I.V. Minakova

In the article on the basis of the conceptual means of the new institutional economics the features of contracting are researched within the framework of institute of bankruptcy. The possibility of opportunistic conduct of chiefs of the crisis enterprises and creditors is argued; the most typical forms of opportunism are characterized; the method of maintenance of observance of the established rules is offered at the expense of amplification of threat of application of sanctions.