

CONTENTS AND MECHANISM OF FINANCING PROCESS OF ENTERPRISES

E.F. Sisoeva

This article is focused on the finance process which has been investigated by the reproduction approach that is based on the financial resources stages and enterprises capital of real economic sector comparison. Mechanism of managing subjects financing has been seen as a contradictions unity of mechanisms of attraction, distributions, placing, forming of financial resources. Determination of structural elements of financing mechanism can characterize subjects of finance relations, their purposes, methods, instruments, main financial indicators, distinction of simple and complicated financial mechanisms reproduction. Practical activities which are being worked out to provide complicated reproduction with external sources of financing could be realized.