

ON SOME ISSUES OF THE 17th CENTURY KURSK CENSUS BOOKS STUDY

Borschik N.D.

Census books are considered to be one of most valuable sources of socioeconomic history of Russia of the 17-18th centuries. As the books contain a number of unique observations, they always attract investigators, attention. The researchers were unaware about the matters of household descriptions of Kursk and Kursk district till now, because of this, its investigations and publication had never been carried through.
